Deeside Brewery

Deeside Brewery are located in the heart of Royal Deeside, Aberdeenshire. We are a stone's throw from the River Dee, the natural location for a brewery. The surrounding Grampian mountains provide the inspiration for the original recipes and the pure, soft water of the river is an essential ingredient in all our beers. Our beers take the names of influential, but often overlooked, historic figures from the area. Each is represented by ancient symbols found carved on Pictish stones. They appear on all the pump clips and bottle labels, and each beer has its own story to tell. We have relocated to a custom built facility at Deeside Activity Park, near Aboyne.

The Trybe A truly unique experience

The Trybe are a full on aural assault led by Great Highland Bagpipes and reinforced by fast and furious tribal drumming. The band really enjoys playing and loves nothing better than everyone on their feet rocking and dancing to their wild Pictish anthems.

We wish to thank The Trybe for the use of their PA equipment and their sound man.
